

GADGETS FOR EVERY BUDGET

UP TO $100

1 Apple iPod Shuffle 2GB

Yes, it has no screen. And yes, if you want to use your own headphones with it you will have to by an adaptor. Look past those things though and you have a seriously tiny MP3 player in a great range of colours with a 2GB capacity. Great price! $79, WWW.APPLE.COM.AU

2 Griffin AirCurve

The iPod Touch and the iPhone are two of the biggest success stories in the gadget world but their tinny speakers leave rather a lot to be desired. The AirCurve fixes the sonic issue by running the sound through its natty coiled horn, rendering tunes a big ten decibels louder than your iPod/Phone. $40, WWW.TECHBUY.COM.AU

3 Kogan HD Digital Set-Top Box with PVR

A PVR that's brand new for under $100? You better believe it! You also better believe that you have to provide your own storage with this one. The good thing is that it's an HD tuner as well so storage aside it's a great device. $99, WWW.KOGAN.COM.AU

4 Logitech Z320

Unless you have no appreciation for music you're not going to be using your computer as your sole music player. So why not go easy on the spending and grab yourself a pair of these? Seriously stylish, they have 10 watts of power and boast 360-degree sound. $80, WWW.LOGITECH.COM

5 Ultimate Ears MetroFi 170

These really are the ultimate in headphones. Now they are at the ultimate price. How Ultimate Ears have managed to squeeze one of its pairs into this price category is beyond us, but we're not complaining. Sweet sound and great bass. $70, WWW.ULTIMATEEARS.COM

6 Plantronics Voyager 520

The best Bluetooth headset you'll find for under 50 notes, the 520 comes with noise-cancelling and wind noise reduction, has talk time of eight hours – 180 hours on standby – and can be paired with two phones as well! $120, WWW.PLANTRONICS.COM.AU

7 Polaroid PoGo

The Polaroid revival starts here. Send your pics to this instant printer via Bluetooth or a USB lead and watch as your images are churned out on 2x3-inch photos in under 60 seconds. OK, the RRP is $269, but look around the interwebs and you'll get it under $100! $269, WWW.POLAROID.COM.AU
